

Assistant Professor, Political Science / Environmental Studies (Public Law and Environmental Policy)

Western Michigan University invites applications for a tenure-track joint appointment in Political Science and Environmental Studies beginning August 2008 at the rank of Assistant Professor, pending budgetary approval. Successful candidates will have a well-defined research agenda in public law or environmental policy with ability to teach courses in both fields. The PhD should be completed by August, 2008.

The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching has placed WMU among the 76 public institutions in the nation designated as research universities with high research activity. WMU is an Affirmative Action / Equal Opportunity Employer consistent with applicable federal and state law. All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply. Review of applications will begin February 22, 2008 and continue until the position is filled.

Applicants should visit <http://www.wmich.edu/hr/careers-at-wmu.htm> to apply. Online applications should include a letter of application, vita, writing sample and, if available, teaching evaluations. Graduate transcripts and three letters of recommendation can be sent directly to Dr. J. Kevin Corder, Chair, Department of Political Science (5346), Re: Public Law/Environmental Policy, Western Michigan University, 1903 W. Michigan Ave., Kalamazoo, MI 49008-5346.
